σ of merit deviation vs community size — one line per penetration band, each point = one community [–; lower is better]

